1. Please rate the following workshops (check only one):

2. Which workshop met the goals set by the project the best and why?

9 responses

Polish - for diversity of methods

Romanian - topic was nice

all

Workshops - well prepared and presented!

I think that the best was workshop prepared by Portugal because it was totally performed by students and it was fun.

Free time

Portugese workshop was great due to the way it was presented. When students teach one another - this is the best way to learn something.

All the experience has been very usefull and I think we have learned a lot concerning different methods to achieve our goals with our students.

3. Which workshop did you find least useful and why?

9 responses

none

Bulgaria - presentations were not well presented.

None

The least useful was the Romanian workshop as we this information can find reading and visiting other countries - and I think we've known a lot about our countries before.

Romanian workshop was interesting but not well prepared by the teacher

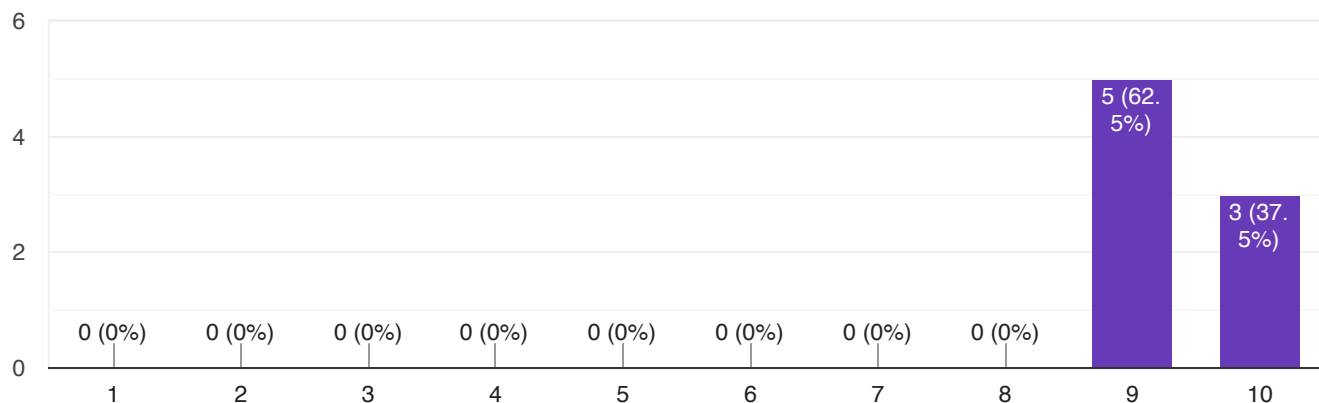

The workshop from Romania, as I think was very basic

European traditions because all the countries had already present their traditions.

Romanian

Everything was very well prepared and organised.

I think it was perfect in all ways

Nothing to add. A very well done job.

Everything was well prepared. Teachers and students took care of us and I liked the stay in zagreb.

Next time organise a trip, please!

No suggestions

No suggestions. Everything was very well prepared and organised

All teachers should be more involved and present when on exchange

THANK YOU!
